Mark 13:24-32

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

Words from a poem by Robert Laurence Binyon (1869-1943), published in The Times newspaper on 21st September 1914.

We will remember them
at our masses
and in our prayers.
May they rest in peace.
Amen

POLISH COMMUNITY MASS. The Polish community celebrate Mass in Polish here at St Teresa's this afternoon (11th November) at 2.15pm. They have also issued a message of peace for the 100th anniversary of the ending of WWI and this afternoon they will gather in St Andrew's cemetery at 3.30pm to bless the Polish War Graves there. All welcome.

THE HOLY SOULS. The month of November is the traditional month when we remember all our dearly departed loved ones at all our Masses. Lists and envelopes are available in the church porch for those who would like to include their family and friends on the Altar List of the Dead during this time of special remembrance of the Holy Souls. All our masses will be offered for the Repose of their Souls. Lists can be returned at anytime to the box on the Sanctuary. There is a custom, if you can afford it, to include an offering with your lists. You may of course hand in your list in any form/envelope.

CHRISTMAS CARDS AND GIFTS. Have a wee look in the church piety stall at the back of church as they now display their range of Christian Christmas Cards and gifts-all at great prices.

GRAND RAFFLE. The £100 winner was Caithlin McConville who very kindly donated it to the Ababa Project. Thank you Caithlin-what a wonderful gesture. All prize winners are listed in the church notice board.

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR. This universal day, established by Pope Francis is celebrated next Sunday (18th). Our dean, Fr William McFadden, will give a presentation talk on Pope Francis' message for this annual day of action. It will take place in St Andrew and St Cuthbert's Parish Hall, High Street, Kirkcudbright on Friday 16th November from 10.45am till 11.30am. All welcome. Also at the PPC meeting we decided that our practical outreach would be a gift to each of the care homes in our parish. With this in mind Fr Jim is looking for volunteers to collect from him a small budget of £50 and put a wee gift pack together and deliver it to one of the Homes with the prayers and good wishes of us all-Lochduhar, Abbey Gardens, Goldielea and Dalawoodie in the town.

INTER-PARISH PRO-LIFE GROUP. A Fellowship Dinner at which Mr John Deighan of SPUC (Scotland) is the guest speaker will take place at the Ken Bridge Hotel, New Galloway at 7.15pm on Monday 5th November. This will include a tour of the prison itself and a discussion with prison staff, chaplains and of course some of the prisoners themselves. Because of security those interested are asked to sign-up for this opportunity today-see Fr Jim himself for an application form.
