We welcome you all here to St Teresa's today as we celebrate the holy Sacrament of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. The Sacraments are being conferred by Bishop Nolan, our diocesan Bishop. This is Bishop Nolan's first pastoral visit to us and we are absolutely delighted he has been able to join us. A very warm welcome to you, Bishop Nolan, from all of us here at St Teresa's.

A special word of welcome is given to the boys and girls who will receive the Sacraments today and to their families, Sponsors and friends.

Following today's ceremony the children will have their group and individual photograph taken with the Bishop after which they will cut the special cake and enjoy a wee snack courtesy of the parish Ladies Guild in the hall before they take part in their family celebrations.
