

Please tick the box that most reflects your own views

	Concerned	Unsure	Not Concerned
Children in Dumfries will be the "Guinea Pigs" for a new school system which has not been tried or tested in Scotland.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
If a child is bullied/has problems in the upper phase, (15+), there would be no local alternative if moving school becomes necessary.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Children from 4 different middle schools (up to S3) will be expected to get along and work together in a large 15+ "Super School"	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
There has been no mention of providing Catholic Education after S3 if either Option 2 or 3 is chosen.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Access / transport to the Crichton campus could prove to be difficult.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Children as young as 10 could share a school with children aged 14/15 if Option 3 goes ahead	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Parents aren't getting enough information about the proposed changes.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Moving young people to a 15+ campus at the start of exam preparation may affect their confidence and success.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Rural and smaller schools may no longer remain viable if children leave at P6 or P7 as in Option 3	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Children will be changing schools twice instead of once if option 2 or 3 is chosen	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
It is possible that pupils at a super-school would share a learning environment/facilities with adults students.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Where is the proof that the new system being proposed will work?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Comments